2025-2026 Concert Series

C Street Brass - Thursday, October 9, 2025 - 7:30 pm

Passionately committed to educating and inspiring the next generation of musicians, C Street Brass's mission is to connect lovers of the arts from all walks of life around a highly energetic and engaging concert experience. Equally as comfortable with Baroque as they are Broadway, this brass ensemble features five of the most talented, classically trained musicians in the industry. Their concerts encompass a wide variety of genres, ranging from Frank Sinatra to Astor Piazzolla and Billy Joel to George Gershwin, and ensure that every audience member's musical palate is satisfied.

Duo Beaux Arts - Tuesday, October 28, 2025 - 7:30 pm

Duo Beaux Arts features international award-winning husband-and-wife concert pianists Dr. Catherine Lan and Steinway Artist Tao Lin. Having performed in prestigious venues around the world like Carnegie Hall, Victoria Hall, Kadriorg Palace and more, this duo has made a name for themselves as one of the most in-demand, accomplished piano duets in the industry. Their program features selections by composers like Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Debussy, and many more, and brings world-class entertainment and musicianship to audiences of all ages!

Bridge & Wolak's "Scandalous Romantics"

Thursday, January 15, 2026 - 7:30 pm

Michael Bridge (accordion) and Kornel Wolak (clarinet) are a globe-trotting musical duo who create life-affirming concerts full of beauty, virtuosity and humor. The two share a passion of fusing genres and a love of classical, jazz and world music, and their new show "Scandalous Romantics" is a hilarious "tabloid" take on the stories behind the most celebrated music stars across genres - and their spectacular lapses in judgement. Featuring songs like "Jealousy Tango," "I Will Always Love You," "Marriage of Figaro" and more, this show will entertain audiences everywhere!

The Waddington Brothers - Tuesday, February 17, 2026 - 7:30 pm

The Waddington Brothers, a band of four brothers from rural North Dakota, perform what they live: music that is real to them, that takes listeners on a journey through the heart of the American West. Seth, Ethan, Jacob and Job skillfully blend cowboy and bluegrass music, creating a style that is timelessly classic and yet refreshingly new and unique. Their rich, stirring harmonies and instrumental versatility bring familiar favorites like "Old Home Town," "Less Traveled Road," and "Red River Valley" to life in way that is entertaining and engaging for audiences of all ages.

MidAtlantic Men - Tuesday, April 21, 2026 - 7:30 pm

The MidAtlantic Men are an exciting vocal trio who have dazzled audiences across the country (and ocean!) with their captivating harmonies and magnetic charm. Comprised of two endearing Americans and one witty Brit, they've set out on a musical quest to settle the timeless debate: Which side of the pond, Great Britain or the United States, truly has the superior tunes? Featuring iconic hits by superstars like Elvis, Madonna and Billy Joel, as well as The Beatles, Queen, Elton John, and more, this concert provides fun, family-friendly entertainment for everyone. The MidAtlantic Men finally settle the score...who does it better? That's for you to decide!

All concerts are held at the Grants Pass High School Performing Arts Center. Seating opens 45 minutes before curtain time.
